Port-au-Prince Service Update

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to inform you that today's scheduled sailing to Port-au-Prince has been cancelled due to the current situation in Haiti. However, our service to Port-au-Prince has not been suspended, and we anticipate resuming sailings next week, provided conditions allow for safe operations.

Our team continues to closely monitor the situation, prioritizing the safety of our crew, vessels, and cargo. Please note that all sailing schedules remain subject to change as conditions evolve.

We remain committed to serving Haiti and will promptly communicate any updates or adjustments to our schedule.

We appreciate your patience, understanding, and continued trust in Antillean Line.

With warm regards,

Your Antillean Family
